- (3) may consolidate, where feasible, office space, recordkeeping, and data processing services.

(c) In administering the renewal of licenses or certificates under this chapter, the agency shall send a notice of the upcoming expiration of a license or certificate to each holder of a license or certificate at least sixty (60) days before the expiration of the license or certificate. The notice must inform the holder of the license or certificate of the need to renew and the requirement of payment of the renewal fee. If this notice of expiration is not sent by the agency, the holder of the license or certificate is not subject to a sanction for failure to renew if, once notice is received from the agency, the license or certificate is renewed within forty-five (45) days after receipt of the notice.

(d) In administering an examination for licensure or certification, the agency shall make the appropriate application forms available at least thirty (30) days before the deadline for submitting an application to all persons wishing to take the examination.

(e) The agency may require an applicant for license renewal to submit evidence proving that:

- (1) the applicant continues to meet the minimum requirements for licensure; and
- (2) the applicant is not in violation of:
 - (A) the statute regulating the applicant's profession; or
 - (B) rules adopted by the board regulating the applicant's profession.

(f) The agency shall process an application for renewal of a license or certificate:

- (1) not later than ten (10) days after the agency receives all required forms and evidence; or

This subsection does not require the agency to issue a renewal license or certificate to an applicant if subsection (g) applies.

(g) The agency may delay issuing a license renewal for up to ninety (90) days after the renewal date for the purpose of permitting the board to investigate information received by the agency that the applicant for renewal may have committed an act for which the applicant may be disciplined. If the agency delays issuing a license renewal, the agency shall notify the applicant that the applicant is being investigated. Except as provided in subsection (h), before the end of the ninety (90) day period, the board shall do one (1) of the following:

(i) If the board makes a request under subsection (g)(4), the office of the attorney general shall conduct an investigation. Upon completion of the investigation, the office of the attorney general may file a petition alleging that the applicant has engaged in activity described in IC 25-1-9-4. If the office of the attorney general files a petition, the board shall set the matter for a hearing. If, after the hearing, the board finds the practitioner violated IC 25-1-9-4, the board may impose sanctions under IC 25-1-9-9. The board may delay issuing the renewal beyond the ninety (90) days after the renewal date until a final determination is made by the board. The applicant's license remains valid until the final determination of the board is rendered unless the renewal is denied or the license is summarily suspended under IC 25-1-9-10.

(j) The license of the applicant for a license renewal remains valid during the ninety (90) day period unless the license renewal is denied following a personal appearance by the applicant before the board before the end of the ninety (90) day period. If the ninety (90) day period expires without action by the board, the license shall be automatically renewed at the end of the ninety (90) day period.

(k) Notwithstanding any other statute, the agency may stagger license or certificate renewal cycles. However, if a renewal cycle for a specific board or committee is changed, the agency must obtain the approval of the affected board or committee.

(l) An application for a license, certificate, registration, or permit is abandoned without an action of the board, if the applicant does not complete the requirements to complete the application within one (1) year after the date on which the application was filed. However, the board may, for good cause shown, extend the validity of the application for additional thirty (30) day periods. An application submitted after the abandonment of an application is considered a new application.

808 IAC 2-11-3 Awarding and deducting points; point system; marking scorecard; round by round score announcement

Authority: IC 25-9-1-2

Affected: IC 25-9-1-18

Sec. 3. (a) The decisions of the judges shall be based primarily on effectiveness, taking into account the following points:

- (1) A clean forceful hit, landed on any vulnerable part of the body above the belt, should be credited in proportion to its damaging effects.
- (2) Aggressiveness is next in importance, and points should be awarded to the contestant who sustains the action of a round by the greatest number of skillful attacks.
- (3) Next in importance is sportsmanship. A contestant should be the spirit, as well as the letter, of the rules and for refraining from taking technical advantage of situations unfair to the opponent. Unsportsmanlike conduct or actions on the part of a contestant should likewise be taken into consideration and points deducted in accordance therewith.
- (4) Defensive work is relatively important, and points should be given for cleverly avoiding or blocking a blow.
- (5) Points should be awarded where ring generalship is conspicuous. This comprises the following points:
 - (A) The ability to quickly grasp and take advantage of every opportunity offered.

(B) The capacity to cope with all kinds of situations which may arise.

(C) To foresee and neutralize an opponent's method of attack.

(D) To force an opponent to adopt a style of boxing at which the opponent is not particularly skillful.

(6) It is advisable to deduct points when a contestant persistently delays the action of a contest by clinching, holding, and lack of aggressiveness.

(7) In order to arrive at a true conclusion, every point should be carefully observed and noticed as the round progresses. The winner of the round shall be the contestant receiving the largest number of points scored in that round. At the end of the contest, the contestant who has to his credit the greatest number of points is the winner of the match. Each round is to be accounted for on the scorecard in figures by the judges. The ten (10) point system shall be used. The score shall be in ratio of merit and demerit of the difference displayed by the contestants. For a draw or even round, ten (10) points shall be given each contestant, the difference in ratio as ten (10) to nine (9), ten (10) to eight (8), or ten (10) to seven (7), as the case may be. The points by which the decision has been reached must be clearly indicated on the scorecard which shall become a permanent record of the contest. When neither contestant has a decided margin in effectiveness, the winner should be determined on points scored, through aggressiveness and sportsmanship. At the conclusion of each contest, the judges shall draw a circle around the name of the winner. In case of a draw, the word .Draw. should be written across the card. In case of a knockout, the scorecard should be marked .K. O., showing the round in which the knockout occurred. Scorecards should be signed and handed to the announcer. Judges and referees should be discreet at all times and not discuss their decisions, when made, with anyone during a contest.

(b) The commission reserves the right to announce the score of each judge at the end of each round.
